Best laid plans – the photos that Brad sent have been archived by my e-mail server and the server is currently down, so I can't send them to you. I will have copies for you tomorrow to review. If it comes back up today I will send them along.

Sorry,

Scott

Thankfully I am a better trial attorney than I am a pdf creating wizard!!!!

Attached are the photos that I thought we would go over for your testimony. I selected them with leaky containers and dangerous conditions in mind. They have all been admitted already. Look them over and then we can chat this afternoon if you are available – let me know a good time and number to call.

Thanks,

Scott

Yep! We should be all set for you in the afternoon slot.

I am putting together a block of pictures that I will be going over with you. I will e-mail them to you shortly and then we can chat and I can answer any last minutes questions you might have.

Thanks,

Scott
